Lego has a service where you can order separate bricks or contact them when a brick is missing from your set. Have a look at their website for more information. This was helpful (4783) Read more The two biggest contributors to the discolouring of the plastic of Lego toys are long term exposure to sunlight and cigarette smoke. Try to minimise these when storing your Playmobil. This was helpful (1856) Read more Lego advises to clean the bricks by hand with some water (no warmer than 40C) and a mild detergent. Never place the bricks in a washing machine or dishwasher. Let the bricks air-dry afterwards. Electric parts can only be cleaned with dry cloth. This was helpful (1731) Read more No, many new Lego sets provide spares for the smaller pieces. This was helpful (1461) Read more To be able to reposition stickers it's a good idea to apply some glass cleaner on the location you want to put the sticker. When the sticker is in right spot, let it dry and it will stick. This was helpful (1272) Read more Many modern Lego instructions include a part list at the end of the booklet. In the case of multiple booklets the list might be found in the middle of the PDF. This was helpful (1226) Read more Yes, Lego and Duplo bricks are compatible. Lego bricks fit on the Duplo bricks with the hollow studs. Duplo bricks fit best on larger Lego bricks and could come loose from smaller Lego bricks. This was helpful (1089) Read more Most Lego sets are suited to play with from age 4 and up, because of the small parts they include. The special Duplo theme is suited for children aged 1,5 and up. The recommended age is always mentioned on the box. This was helpful (1022) Read more If you want to know about a Lego set or part, such as the year its from, how many pieces a set has, replacement parts or in what other sets a certain piece can be found, than BrickLink.com is the best place. Loved it.Gwendolen rated this set 5 of 5 stars 07/04/2014I have one of these buses and was really pleased, recently, when I found the instructions to rebuild it as it collapsed when I moved some years ago. It now has pride of place in my living room!Matt rated this set 5 of 5 stars 04/11/2015This was possibly my first Lego model at the age of about three in 1969. I still own it and like Gwendolen's, it has pride of place in my living space :O)Andy Tuohy rated this set 3 years old and obsessed with lego. I have no doubt he will come to be defined as the Mixel Generation. In a fit of nostalgia I thought I would see if I could find the lego bus I had when I was 4 in 1968. And lo and behold, here it is. I'm assuming that, although it was released in 1966, it would still have been available in 1968? Almost brought a tear to my eyes as it made me think of my dad, who died a few years ago, helping me put it together at about the same age as my son is now and then my sister, who was 2 at the time destroying it, which was very upsetting for me apparently. Or was that meccano? Probably both. Seems such a long time ago. Who'd have thought a simple toy could generate such strong emotions. Oh and the side box graphics is just fab!John rated this set 5 of 5 stars 12/10/2016Just got the instructions from your website. I got mine in the late 60's. Just finished building it again with my Lego crazy grandson of five years old. ThanksAndrew rated this set 5 of 5 stars 11/14/2023This was my first ever Lego set - LEGO 313 London Bus. I must have been 3 or 4 when I got it. I recently found these instructions and wondered if I still had all the parts in my childhood loose Lego box. It turns out I did, even down to the grey tyres. Great fun to build again, and brought back some memories. Thank you.Own this LEGO set? Tell everyone what you like about it - add a review. Ask the publishers to restore access to 500,000+ books.
