Which monthly beauty box is best

Let's talk beauty subscription boxes. After all, they're the perfect present for those weddings, parties, birthdays and events we've all been holding out for. For those interested into signing up to a regular beauty subscription box, it's one of the easiest ways to stay in-the-know when it comes to beauty, and what's better than getting a selection of the best beauty products of the moment delivered straight to your door each month?These packages of joy, full of travel sized beauty gems and even occasionally a collection of full-sized products, are a brilliant way of trialling new launches without committing to the full cost. Spanning everything from vegan beauty to niche perfume brands and premium products - there is a specialist monthly subscription box out there for everyone. If you're after a good mix of products, the OG's like LookFantastic, from £13 a month, and Glossybox, from £11.75 a month, are a great place to start. Don't fancy signing up for a subscription? Try out one of Next Beauty's branded beauty boxes - where you can nab £100-worth of products for as little as £20. And don't miss our limited edition skincare box (below) which features 10 skincare essentials from beauty's major players.GLOSSYBOX x Grazia Smart Skincare Box is back with 10 skincare superheroes. From high-tech serums to the hand cream that we all need right now, this box is packed with much-loved brands that will not only help you to unwind but also boost your natural glow!The beauty shelves can often be hard to navigate and it's tempting to stick to buying the old faithfuls, the big name brands, the well-known buys. Often trying a new and interesting beauty buy means investing a pretty sum in a product that you're not 100% certain that you'll love. Beauty subscription boxes offer another option. For a set price per month you can subscribe to a beauty gift box that pertains to the things you're interested in, and try out products as you go. Hit on make-up, skincare, body products, gadgets or a nail polish you love? That's when you spend your money on the full-sized version, sure in the knowledge that you'll value every last drop of it.Besides all of the beauty benefits, let's not forget that receiving something in the post never gets old. Picking up a package full of hair, skin or make-up treats that you didn't know you wanted is even better. Here are the beauty subscription boxes worth signing up to...1 of 26You can purchase the LookFantastic box for £15 as a one-off buy or subscribe for as little as £13 per month. The boxes have been a sell-out success and there is currently a waiting list to join the queue for the next instalment. So, don't hang around!16 of 26A luxury beauty and lifestyle subscription box for mums and their babies. Oh Mumma is a lovely monthly treat. And if you're out of ideas for a baby shower, treat someone to this lovely gift. The box features a selection of 5-7 products from the likes of Philip Kingsley, Gallinee, Space Masks and many more. Oh Mumma Subscription Box, from £22.17 of 26If you're not about the sample size life, MINTD offers four or five full or deluxe-sized beauty products within their boxes. Of course, that means that there's a heftier price tag attached but if you're the sort of person who spends quite a bit on beauty products anyway, it might be worth giving this a go and seeing if you save. There are different plans that you can choose from if there's a specific sort of thing you'd like to see in your boxes, and the option to create a profile so you get sent stuff you're actually going to use. It's all very sleek and grown up. This month's edition is in partnership with Rodial and features 4 full-sized skincare saviours. MINTD, from £70 for one month. 18 of 26This is the ultimate indulgent beauty box. According to the Perfume Society website 'everyone deserves to smell good and feel great' - we'll take it (Yes! It sometimes even includes chocolate!). If you're really into it - you can even join their special VIP club and get a discount. The Perfume Society Beauty Box, from £19 per month. 19 of 26If you're looking for the most animal and planet-friendly beauty box around, Pip box is for you. All of their products are cruelty free and vegan (not to mention - delivered for free in the UK with some seriously snap-friendly packaging). What's not to love? Pip Box. From £20 per month. 20 of 26Are you a bit of a Diva when it comes to what you put on your face? (No judgement!) If so, then cohorted may just be the subscription box for you. As the 'No.1 high-end beauty box provided' cohorted boxes are packed with luxury treats, making them the Beyoncé of beauty subscription services. Cohorted Beauty Box. £39.99 per month. 21 of 26If you find yourself spending most of your time hoping to find your next nail polish tucked away in your gift boxes, you might want to give the Meebox a try. It's the only subscription box in the UK purely for nails. Each box has a few different coloured polishes and some tools or treatments to keep your nails looking fresh. And while it's not the cheapest of subscriptions, at least the shipping is free! Meebox, £30 per month.22 of 26A great way to discover new natural beauty brands, The Natural Beauty Box sources natural, vegan and cruelty-free skincare and beauty products from ethical artisans to curate a different box each month themed around the changing seasons and your skin's need. A feel good, do good beauty box, from £24.95. 23 of 26Not technically a beauty box, this sustainable subscription service allows you to shop your favourite essentials (like shampoo, body wash, moisturiser) and select how often you would like them to be topped up. So, once you're finished with your products, Beauty Kitchen collect the empties, clean them, refill and deliver - it's your eco-friendly beauty milkman. From £20. 24 of 26Created by celebrity nutritionist Gabriela Peacock, GP Nutrition is a supplement brand that caters to various health goals. Be it sleep, stress, energy or diet - you'll find a 7-day plan to target your specific needs. What's more, you can choose between a one-off purchase or a repeated subscription service with a 35% discount. 25 of 26Founded by 17-year-old Lysander, Leo's Box is an eco friendly subscription box trying to make it easy and affordable to live in a sustainable way with products that do good and are good. Plus, a tree is planted with each and every box, while also supporting Plastic Oceans. 26 of 26Inspired by Lush's Parisian Fresh shop, all of the exclusive items in each box are freshly made to deliver. We're talking botanical ingredients like fruit, herbs and natural oils, straight from the field. They're all chopped, blended, pressed and whipped into the products that Lush are famed for and sent to you quick smart, to instantly serve up an indulgent DIY spa experience for as little as £35 a month. The real plus point? They come complete with a bunch of seasonal flowers. Talk about upping the ante!The excitement and joy of a beauty subscription box is that each month a new edit of beauty must-haves will turn up on your doorstep. For certain brands, like LookFantastic and Birchbox, there will often be a different theme, e.g. sustainable beauty, Mother's Day, skincare saviours. Other boxes available on the market, like the Selfridges Beauty Collection, £79, and Next Beauty boxes (from £18+) offer a one-off purchase rather than a subscription service - which is great if you're after those exact products. which monthly beauty box is best uk
