Surely worth the money for the passage! If I can angels last mission: love, to all the guys who loved me, w, while you were sleeping and suspicious partner, touching your heart, liar and his lover and the guardian: the solitary and great god are all 10 / 10 recommendations to watch! I A lot of others but those are some of my best choices. The app itself works great for me I never have problems. I love you to follow the actors there and see all the shows that those actors are specifically because there are some actors I love and makes me easy to see all the dramas in which they are! This is one of my favorite features. Any show with Kang Ki Young is usually exhilarating, it's a fun actor who looked at him in placing the ghost and I couldn't stop laughing usually to support roles, but it's great! As for my main favorite actors, Lee Dong Wook, Yoo In Na, Lee Jong Suk, Jung Hae In, Ahn Jae Hyun talking about Ahn Jae Hyun my love from the stars was good it was more a support role in what anyone Less a good show! Oh Lee Hyun Woo in the liar and him loving him so good! Anyway I'm sorry, I know I'm antigate if you read this way through your sample thanks to haha oh developer wise "e d love see this app on xbox one, so I can watch it there. I love this app! First of all, I love you can try the app without even committing a process, looking at only some advertising spots. I saw two seasons of a show, completely free, before even starting my free premium process. So big! I love comments (although to make it even better, it would be nice if they were live comments, how to watch it together, rather than only time printed with the show), I love that I can watch these shows with Spanish subtitles, and I love the available shows Him! I'm not a big TV watch, so I've never been enrolled at any streaming service before because I could never see myself to use enough to justify the cost. They can absolutely see me using this enough to justify the prize! A note though the premium version: Premium allows iPhone users to launch a chrome cast, which is fantastic because what I have in my bedroom. However, when I launched the subtitles they are white without a background as on the app or on the Apple TV, so sometimes they are very difficult to read. And I would also like the opportunity to show or show comments at the time of casting, because sometimes I like to read them as I looked like that I could be fun. But comments are more a suggestion, while I believe that the subtitle problem is a legitimate need for improvement in terms of accessibility with this app. Otherwise, this is a great app and I highly recommend giving him a go. I love Rakuten Viki. There is an almost overwhelming selection of quality, drama and eastern Asian films and movies available to only once 24 hours a day, and the cost of a subscription is more than worth it. However, I have 3 complaints: 1) more and more, it seems that their servers are overloaded, resulting in loss of connection or delay. 2) Not all Viki applications work the same way. The Samsung, Firetv and Xbox apps all differ in functionality, and one of those do not allow subtitle adjustments. 3) My worst complaint, however, is that more and more often volunteer translators are placing a vulgar language in which he has no place. I speak a little quantity of Korean, but my Korean-American girl is flowing in that language, and both we find frequent examples of words of curse, even if the actors and actresses are not, in fact, using epithets. Why do it? These open-mouthed volunteer translators are transforming many healthy and familiar shows to Rating entertainment R. Who wants to listen to the F-bomb out of the context plus and more times in a romantic comedy? I can't distinguish the reasoning behind it. Otherwise, I take great fun from the service and I hope you continue to be available for a while Long to come.
