It was during his first year of study at LSBU that Osman became aware of the work of LSBU's Confucius Institute, and the possibility of spending some time in China practising Mandarin and experiencing the country first hand. "The chance to learn New HSK Test Principles and then build on it whilst actually living in China was one of the main reasons I applied for the Harbin Summer School programme," he says. Prior to the trip, Osman attended classes with fellow Harbin Summer School scholarship applicants where he met Chinese teachers from Harbin Normal University. He learned about Chinese culture, including food, music, literature and calligraphy to prepare him for the trip.

China's position as the second largest economy in the world is influencing employers to look for people with mandarin language skills and an understanding of New HSK Test Principles. At LSBU, students are able to take the Mandarin Chinese Proficiency Scheme called HanYu ShuPing Kaoshi (HSK), of which there are six levels. The first two levels focusing on pinyin only -

The New HSK Test Principles is an international recognised qualification by employers and universities.

An added benefit of a New HSK Test Principles is that students are able to apply for the generous scholarships schemes which offer opportunities for study at Chinese universities with tuition fees, accommodation and health insurance paid. The HSK is a standardized Chinese proficiency test recognized by governments and corporations worldwide as a standard gauge of an individual's Chinese language proficiency level. I was surprised that there are no reference answers for the workbooks but I found that you should be able to download them from the publisher's website (www.blcup.com). When I tried it told me I need to login in so I have created and account. Unfortunately it will no let me log in as it says the username and password are not correct. I have tried resetting the password but the result is still the same. Can anyone help? Do you have a working account for this website? Does the website work? Do you have copies of these reference answers or know where I can find them? 谢谢你们。 西门 (Simon) I Like 太好了。 谢谢你们。 I will have a look on purple culture for the HSK2 ones. 谢谢你们! Thanks so much for these links. I tried to get the HSK2 ones elsewhere, but no success, neither on purple culture so far... I Like I can confirm that you can get the HSK2 ones from Purple Culture, as Drenstro says. I have successfully purchased this myself in the past few days, after downloading the other ones from Drenstro's links. Thanks to you all! I meanwhile managed to buy the HSK2 answers via Drenstro's link. Simply not found the item before. Thanks for the resources could you upload listening videos as well If you are working with the HSK books, I can really recommend the Chinese Zero to Hero series, which I myself use in combination with C Pod. It is a very gentle companion to the rather dry topics in the books, at a very competitive price. When I planned to take HSK level 2, my teacher Amber in my Chinese school used the HSK Standard Course (HSK 标准教程) to help us prepare for the test. The result showed that the serials were quite helpful. All of us passed the test. Afterward, I continued to study with this HSK Standard Course series and passed HSK level 3 and 4 smoothly. It's suitable for all self-taught learners and the students who want to pass the tests. "With HSK test papers as its primary source, HSK Standard Course is characterized by a humorous style, familiar topics, and a scientific course design. Matching the HSK test in all aspects, from the content, form to the levels, it is a series of new-type course books embodying the idea of combining testing and teaching, and promoting learning and teaching by testing." The learning pace is reasonable - it assumes learners are motivated, and very quickly progresses to language and grammar you can use every day. Unlike other textbooks, The New Chinese Practical Reader provides very detailed and efficient Pinyin learning at the beginning lessons. Thus, you can learn further and better. Each chapter has quite a few new characters and vocabulary to learn. It's very popular books so that you can buy on Amazon or other sites. I've also got some free download PDF as well as mp3 versions. I don't how to prepare for it? Can you give me some advice? Hi, I know one HSK test preparation and practice YouTube channel, Chinese teacher shasha shared the HSK video tutorials in regular to help all the Chinese learners pass the HSK exam easily and quickly. I think the following HSK 2 video can help you. First, you should find strengthen your Chinese basic knowledge, especially, Chinese grammar. For oral Chinese, you can find a native Chinese friends to practice. You can also go to Chinesebon to find a native Chinese language partner. You can download the following HSK test exams here for free, and they also provide the Audio tracks: HSK Practice Test with Listening Audio (Level 1 - 6, Download) Hello, HSK2 or 3 level test is hard. As long as you find the right way to learn, and practice the points much, i think you will pass it. Here is the video of professional teacher who have been teaching HSK for many years. They may help you on it. There is a way to gain a satisfactory and high Mark in the HSK exams, using the Peking U. HSK materials. When I opened this thread, I thought about another preparation. I thought that everybody told you to bring a cup of tea or coffee, turn on relaxing music (maybe another style, I prefer relaxing music, when I prepare). And also you need to be in good mood. If you are sad, you can repeat previous actions. After that mood will be good AND I think, that all those instructions, which other users write to you, must-have, but my instruction (coffee, music, good mood) more important! Thank you very much for the recommendations, it's very helpful for me! Hey. I'd just like to add that HSK levels has changed a bit recently, so there are also some changes in vocabulary you need to study. From my experiences HSK is using a lot of words that you don't need in daily life, so whenever you are doing exercises try to think of "daily-life-examples" with your tutor or in class. Good luck! Chinese isn't easy hehe, but it's so rewarding when you can have a conversation with a native speaker!! GOOD LUCK AND 加油! You must be logged in to reply to this topic. Lesson content locked!
